Lee's Summit Quilter's Guild, established 1983

A Message from our President

Just in case any of you are wondering, my basement tiling project is finally complete. O.K. not everything is in place but I am sewing down there again and it feels amazing to have my studio back. Our next project is a remodel of two of our bathrooms. We are having a contractor do most of it but I am doing the tile floor. I guess I am just a glutton for punishment but for some reason I really enjoy laying tile. Go figure!!

I spent some time during break at our last guild meeting talking with the president of the Blue Springs Nighttime Needlers Guild as well as some of our new members. In the course of both conversations I was told how friendly our guild is and how enthusiastic the membership is about quilting and guild activities. I was so proud of our guild and that I am a part of such a wonderful group. Please pat yourselves on the back for a job well done; you all are such wonderful representatives of our guild.

As we move towards our annual quilt show I know you will all give of your time and talents as you are able. At the August meeting you will have the opportunity to sign up for 2 hour volunteer shifts at the quilt show. There is a wide variety of volunteer opportunities from working in the boutique, sitting at the guild table sharing information about the guild with prospective members, white gloving and donating food or money for the hospitality room. Many jobs can be done while sitting. Please give of your time and help us make this another successful quilt show. Not only does the show allow us to share our love of quilting with the community but it also funds the wonderful programs we have throughout the year.

Don't forget to register your quilts to be hung in the show. I would love to see every member have something in the show. You are all so very talented; please don't hide that talent away from the public.

Blessings, Pam

2012 LSQG Quilt Show

Bed Turning

Last year's Bed Turning was a success. It's time to think about your antique quilts that are at least 50 years old and/or baby quilts 20 years old. Entry forms will be available at the monthly guild meetings. Fill out and return to Pat Wheeler by October 8, 2012.

Silent Auction

Silent Auction committee is asking for your help. We are in need of miniature wall hangings 12" in size, tablerunners 17" x 36" in size, tabletoppers 36" square or round.

We are doing a holiday theme, which can be any holiday from January until December. We will start collecting at the August Guild meeting and the last date that we will be accepting will be the October Guild meeting.

Boutique Needs

I sorted through all the donations for the quilt show boutique this week and am totally blown away by how much merchandise we have and the quality of the items. At this point we need Christmas tree ornaments as well as other Christmas decorations/items plus items for babies or kids. Other items are always welcome but those are the two areas where I see that we are short of merchandise. Thanks to all of you who have donated items so far. Starting in September I will accept donations of used quilt magazines, books and patterns. Thank you so much, Pam Dooley

Minutes of the Meeting of the General Membership, July 9, 2012

The regular meeting of the Lee's Summit Quilters' Guild was called to order by President Pam Dooley at 9:13 a.m. on July 9, 2012 at Woods Chapel United Methodist Church with 100 members and six guests present.

The minutes for the June guild meeting were approved as published. The treasurer's report for June was corrected to read $8.00 instead of $800 and was then approved and submitted for audit.

Old Business: Sheryl Murray was thanked for all her work in arranging the great bus trip to Wichita. Please remember to return guild library books to our library and not to Mid-Continent Public Library. If you don't get email, please pick up a hard copy of the guild's new roster.

New Business: No one offered any nominations from the floor, so the Nominating Committee's slate of officers was elected. The new officers are: President—Donna Bland; 2013-2014 Vice-Presidents—Georgia Stull and Jenifer Dick; Recording Secretary—Janie Wagner; Correspondence Secretary—Diana Walden; Treasurer—Betty Willeke; Ways and Means—Georgene Jurgensen; Historian—Janice Crance; Newsletter—Diane Cox; Quilt Show 2013—Elaine Boten and Judy Sewell; and Quilt Show 2014—Becky Kempf and Cheryl Gross. Previously elected officers are: 2012-2013 Vice-Presidents: Sharon Neuer and Georgia Stull; and Quilt Show 2012—Elaine Boten and Judy Sewell. Congratulations to you all!

When Donna Bland calls to ask you to be a committee chair or worker bee, please accept if you can.

The guild donated $100 to local public television channel, KCPT, because KCPT broadcasts many quilting shows.

Edwina Smith has a small role in Lee's Summit West High School's upcoming production of "The Music Man" and invited guild members to come see the show.

Lee's Summit Medical Center thanked the guild for participating in its recent health fair.

And Sew Be It is offering free lunch to groups of 12-25 that visit the shop on Wednesdays.

The Little Village Quilt Store Company (<http://www.thequiltgarage.com/>) is now open in downtown Buckner, MO.

Country Patchwork Quilters' Guild of Marshall, MO sold tickets for its opportunity quilt at today's meeting.

Today's new members were Marilyn Burasco, Cindy Culbertson, and Penny Roberts. Welcome all!

Committee Reports:

Programs: Today's guest lecturer and teacher is Ruth Powers.

The August program will be "Log Cabin Trails" presented by Ronnie Elmore. There will be no workshop in August, so bring a sack lunch, your sewing machine, and supplies and stay to work on donation quilts during the afternoon.

In September, Candy Hargrove, who makes samples for Jo Morton, will present "I'm a Quilt Designer and So Are You."

Ways and Means: Jan Hoffman still has guild cookbooks available for $10 each.

Historian: Marilyn Gorman stepped up to take photographs at today's meeting.

Christmas 2012: Connie Breslin announced that the same caterers from Christmas 2011 will provide lunch. The cost might increase a bit, but the guild will still subsidize each member's lunch by $5. There will also be a gift exchange.

Quilt Show 2012: Don't forget that the Quilt Show will be on November 2nd and November 3rd in our new meeting space.

Eighteen vendors have signed up for the Quilt Show.

Bed Turning will have its own forms for entering antique quilts.

Silent Auction will accept donations even if the dimensions are a little off. The deadline for donations is the guild's October meeting. Pam Dooley offered to lend her book on holiday table runners to anyone who is interested.

Next month Prize Patrol will still accept fat quarters for the opportunity basket.

Donna Bland's group has made 30 aprons for Quilt Show workers to wear. In order to finish the aprons, the group needs 2-1/2 yard pieces of 3/4"-7/8" wide grosgrain ribbon.

The Boutique still needs donations of merchandise for the Quilt Show.

Diane Cox announced that paper registration forms for quilts are available if you cannot use the online registration form.

State Fair: JoAnn Hudson announced that our guild's time is August 10th from 12:30 p.m. until 1:30 p.m. and will be in the Home Ec Building. JoAnn plans to have a "Best in Show" display of quilts that won 1st, 2nd, or 3rd place ribbons in Quilt Show 2011.

Fall Frolic: Fall Frolic will be on Monday, September 17th from 9:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. in the guild's former meeting room upstairs. In August, there will be a signup sheet for bringing soup, salad, or dessert to the potluck lunch.

Donna Bland will demonstrate how to make an apron from a man's shirt, bias tape, and thread using your sewing machine. Please consider making two aprons and donate one of them to the Boutique.

Winter Retreat 2013: The next payment of $50 was due at today's meeting. There are still a limited number of places left for the March event. Please contact Donna Bland if you are interested.

Guild Projects: Nancy Solsberg reminded those who participate in the 2-1/2" strip swap to please prewash their strips and fold each strip individually. You can swap no months, some months, or all months as you wish. Remember to bring twelve width-of-fabric strips in a plastic bag labeled with your name. August's color is brown; and September's "color" is novelty prints. September will be the last month for the strip swap.

Please remember that the Ugly Fat Quarter Projects are due in September. If you can't bring your project to the September meeting, please give it to Nancy beforehand.

Nancy will post patterns for the Smart Ones microwave holder, potholders, and a clutch for crochet hooks in the Guild Projects section on the blog.

This month's completed Round Tuit projects were: Nancy McWilliams's completed purse, a Red Beans and Rice throw, and another throw quilt; Lucy Grimes's blue and white quilt for her great-grandson; and Joyce Anderson's purple and white quilt.

Next month's lucky RoundTuit presenters will be Jill Dean, Nancy Hayob, Kay Woody, & Martha Lear.

Respectfully submitted,

Mary Lou Pick, Recording Secretary
